Benefits

If the Insured dies solely as a result of injuries will Fidelity pay the Accidental Death Benefit?

Under this benefit, the term "injuries" mean bodily injuries due solely to an accident which results in the Insured's Death within 90 days of the accident.

Exclusions*

No Benefit will be payable if the Insured's death results directly from the following causes:

- a. Suicide: Suicide, while the Insured is sane or insane.
- b. War: War, declared or undeclared, or any act of war. War is defined as armed conflict between nations, or between factions of the same nation
- c. Military Service: Service in the military forces of any country at war or in any civilian noncombatant unit serving with those forces. "War" includes undeclared war. "Country" includes any international organization or group of countries.
- d. Aviation: Travel in, or descent from or with, any kind of aircraft aboard which the Insured is a pilot or crew member or is giving or receiving any training. "Crew member" includes anyone who has any duty aboard the aircraft.
- e. Natural Causes: Bodily or mental illness, disease or infirmity of any kind or medical or surgical treatment for any of these.
- f. Drug: The taking or injection of any nonprescription drug, hypnotic or narcotic, accidentally or otherwise.
- g. Blood Alcohol: Death while the Insured is operating a motor vehicle and is determined to have a blood alcohol level exceeding the legal limit as defined by state law.
- h. Felony: Injury received while committing a felony.

*Exclusions may vary by state. Please consult state-specific policy language for details.

[†]Idaho and New Jersey have different rates, please see the ADB Producer brochure.

Note: Answering the above questions, does not guarantee a policy will be approved.
